Air One serves the greater Las Vegas Valley by bringing the Gospel of Christ to an otherwise spiritual wasteland. Many people including myself rely on Air one to brighten our day with music and information that aids our alk with Christ. Air One also suports the community by ofering another way to deal with daily living. Allowing this radio station to continue broadcasting will bring a light to an otherwise dark city where sin is abundant and many lives have been ruined.